Sultanate of Oman

National Committee for Combating Human Trafficking

Criminalization of Human Trafficking in the Sultanate

Article 22 of Oman’s Anti-trafficking Law stipulates that any person shall be deemed committing a human trafficking crime if they intentionally or for the purpose of exploitation:

- Use, transfer, shelter, or receive a person by coercion, under threat, trick, exploitation of position or power, exploitation of weakness, by use of authority over that person, or by any other illegal means directly or indirectly.
- Use, transfer, shelter or receive a minor, even if the means mentioned in the preceding paragraph are not used.

Therefore, whoever participates by instigation, assistance or agreement in the committing of a human trafficking crime shall be deemed culprit.

The definition is consistent with the United Nation’s definition of the human trafficking crime. For more information please refer to the NCCHT website.....
